PACEM IN TERRIS IV

A National Convocation to Consider the Foreign Policy Issues
in the 1976 Presidential Campaign

Sheraton-Park Hotel, Washington, D.C.
December 2-4, 1975

Sponsored by THE FUND FOR PEACE and
THE CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS/THE FUND FOR THE REPUBLIC, INC.

How can we make peace—not peace through the medium of war, not peace through the dreadful mechanisms of terror, but peace, pure, simple, and durable?

The first Pacem in Terris Convocation and its successor in Geneva two years later, took their title from the historic 1963 encyclical of Pope John XXIII. That document was accepted by the Soviets as a serious gesture from the West suggesting a reduction in Cold War tensions.

Pacem in Terris III convened in Washington, D.C. in 1973 to examine the new directions made mandatory by the global setting that had emerged with the reduction of American involvement in Southeast Asia and U.S.
openings to Peking and Moscow.

The fourth Pacem in Terris Convocation will take up the foreign policy issues that ought to be debated in the coming Presidential campaign.
